

 CHRISTIAN von LAHR (clairvoyant medium) ***

- ✗ (1) Mariah Carey will "say bye-bye" to Nick Cannon after their short marriage because Nick is impotent. (According to Wikipedia, they are still married and Carey is pregnant with twins.)
- (Too Vague) (2) Something really big with one of Obama's daughters involving the letters "P," "I," "N," and "K." Note that the letters may have spiritual meaning instead or be turned, like the "P" into a "b," "d," "6," or "9." It could also look like a bed or a wheelbarrow [so, basically you can retrodict anything to this]. The letters are also in the word, "kidnap."
- ✗ (3) Obama and Biden will have a difference in opinion leading to a shake-up in the cabinet ... as in Biden will leave.
- ✗ (4) The Vatican and China will emerge as world leaders.
- ✗ (5) The IMF will collapse from the perspective of the US being in charge of it.
- ✗ (6) China will re-instate the Dali Llama.
- ✗ (7) Turkey will work with Iraq and Iran, becoming the spokesperson.
- ✓ (8) Israel will not attack Iran.
- ✓ (9) China will get more in charge (as a check) of/against North Korea.
- ✓ (10) We won't increase production in oil, so price/production will be stable.
- ✗ or (Too Vague) (11) Around August or an "8," there will be something earth-shaking, geologically. "It looks to me like a split in the ocean" related to the Ring of Fire. A volcano will go off in the Aleutian Islands, triggering other volcanos. This will relieve the pressure on the Yellowstone volcano.
- ✗ (12) There will be another volcano going off in Indonesia or Chile that will counter-balance the one in Alaska so that there aren't major earthquakes. [It seemed as though he was applying this to 2012, though.]
- ✗ (13) The USA will get its 51st state, but it won't be DC nor Puerto Rico. Rather, one of the other states will break-up, and it will be around the New York area.
- ✗ (14) Another brother in the Jackson family will have his own scandal.
- ✗ (15) There will be another shake-up around Michael Jackson about his death, not medical-related.

 PAUL GUERCIO (of the Merlin Project) ***

- ✗ (1) There will be huge new deposits of natural gas discovered which will severely hinder the development of "alternative" energy sources.
- ✗ (2) There will be a change in the Obama administration in the 12-24 month window, likely between Spring and Fall of this year before the 2010 midterm elections.
- (Not for 2010) (3) If Obama runs in 2012 for the presidency, Hillary will replace Biden as the VP candidate.
- ✗ (4) There will be a more severe "shoe bomber" / "underwear bomber" event, al Queda-linked, in the early days of Obama's presidency.
- (Too Vague) (5) If you are a solstice or an equinox person [which he then incorrectly lists as March/June/September/December 30 instead of 21] or within 3-5 days around that, this will be a "tremendously changeful year for you."
- ✗ (6) Sean Hannity will take a nosedive. [Strongly implied it would be like Tiger Woods through infidelity, but was clarified 2 hours later to just mean career-wise like Tiger Woods, not for the same reasons as him.]

 GLYNIS McCANTS (numerologist) ***

- (Too Vague) (1) (Regarding von Lähr's predictions of the Obama girls ...) He was referring to the older one, Sasha, and the letter "P" is a "7" meaning that she could be entering a year for self-discovery, but to Glynis, the younger one seems to be up for a more interesting year. Also, "PINK" -> "5" meaning drama.
- (Too Vague / Won't Know Yet) (2) This will be the year that defines Obama's presidency.
- (Too Vague) (3) "Year of 3" means that this will be the year to rise up ($2+0+1+0=3$).
- (Generally Not True, but Enough to give ...) ✓ (4) The election will be a "clean sweep" where "if you're in now, you're out."
- ✗ (5) The economy will get worse before it can get better.
- (Too Vague) (6) Everyone's going to have something to say about Obama, and we're going to hear about it.
- (Too Vague) (7) This is the year for families coming together and getting away from materialism.
- (Too Vague) (8) [I didn't write down what she said for each number for people for this year.]

(Too Vague) (9) Ahmadinejad is in power to do what he wants (5 life path, personal year of 5) and we won't be able to compromise.

 TANA HOY (psychic and spiritual teacher) ***

[Started off by calling the host "Ryan" instead of "Ian." An auspicious beginning ...]

- ✗ (1) Indonesia will be hit again really hard by a "major weather disaster in 2010" (even though the question was about earthquakes).
- ✗ (2) There will be 2 major disasters in Indonesia, one from an earthquake and one by high waves and water - not necessarily a tsunami, but "a lot of water." These will be two separate things.
- ✗ (3) Financial markets will not be affected in any way (from #1 and 2 (by proxy)).
- ✗ (4) There will be another major terrorist attack in this country, similar to Mumbai in 2008. Over 100 people "will perish as a result of it." It will involve 3 or 4 young people (early 20s) who will be armed, go into buildings, and open fire. This will be orchestrated/coordinated to occur at the same time, as in these people will be in different parts in the US and it'll happen at the same time. One will be a major tourist spot (like LA, Washington, D.C., or New York -- one will definitely be NYC). They'll come over on tourist visas. People won't know how to react.

Note - Ian then brought up that Hoy predicted a terrorist attack in the Midwest during 2009 that didn't happen. The reply: "Right, that was due to angelic intervention. I really feel that it was angelic intervention that that bomb didn't go off in Detroit. I really feel that that was divine intervention."

(Too Vague) (5) People who are open to [the paranormal] as we approach 2012 will become more aware of guardian angels, aliens, etc. [Yes, he did include angels and aliens in the same sentence.]

✗ (6) There will be another European country in 2010 that will also claim [in addition to Bulgaria in 2009] to have been in contact with aliens. He thinks it will either be Czechoslovakia, Poland, or Prague. [Note to reader - Czechoslovakia no longer exists, it's the Czech Republic, and Prague is not a country, it's the capital of the Czech Republic. ... can you tell I'm not impressed by this guy?]

✗ (7) Aliens will be discussed in the media more seriously than ever before.

(Too Vague) (8) People who lost money in the stock market in 2009 will recover almost all their losses in 2010 ... as long as they reinvested their money that they had left after the crash.

(Too Vague) (9) Investments with China will be very profitable.

(Too Vague) (10) Gold will drop a little bit, then go back up.

(Too Vague, but Enough to give ...) ✓ (11) 2010 will be a year of financial turn-around for most people. The worst part is behind us. By June/July/Summer, people who were feeling hopeless will be hopeful.

✗ (12) A cure will be found for a rare form of cancer.

✗ or (Too Vague) (13) Similar to Michael Jackson's death, there will be two more in Hollywood. One will be a male icon who sings but who is not a singer -- he doesn't know what that means, that's how the info was provided to him (Tana Hoy), but it will make sense when it happens. Another will be a younger female actress and will shock her fans.

✗ (14) Obama will "send more troops to Afghanistan." (The host: "Well he's announced that ..." Hoy: "Okay, okay. I mean, but, again, I feel he's going to send more. ... I don't follow the news, sometimes I say things that have already happened (laughing). ... He's going to send more troops than we expect him to send. ... It will be more than we're lead to believe.")

✗ (15) At the end of 2010, Obama will announce a date when we'll begin to pull out of Afghanistan. [Again, didn't he already do this?]

(No way of Confirming) (16) No danger around the Obama family specifically. Some may be thinking about it or planning it, but they'll realize that they can't actually get to him.

 CAL OREY ("earthquake sensitive") ***

✗ (mag. 6.6) (1) The Aleutian Islands or Anchorage will experience a major earthquake. At least a 7.0 or larger (70% chance).

(Too Vague) (2) Off-shore Oregon may have a quake, Seattle is overdue.

✓ (3) Off-shore Northern California, near Eureka, is overdue for at least a 6.0. (6.5 on Jan. 10, 5.9 on Feb. 4)

(Too Obvious) (4) So. Cal (San Fernando Valley area) will get at least a 5.0 earthquake.

(Too Vague - there are quakes all the time everywhere) (5) There will "definitely" be another quake along the New Madrid fault.

(Too Vague) (6) Another devastating underwater quake in Indonesia may happen in 2010.

(Too Vague - there are quakes all the time everywhere) (7) Another quake in southern Italy.

(Too Vague and Too Obvious) (8) If San Francisco gets another quake in 2010, Arnold won't be very happy.

✗ (9) The sea lions leaving San Francisco is an indicator of the coming quakes.

 TERRY and LINDA JAMISON (the psychic twins) ***

[Claims all predictions in 2009 came true. I'm not going to go listen to them, so we'll just see for 2010. Follow-Up: I listened to their 1999 predictions and they claimed that AIDS would be cured by 2002, "breast cancer drug break-through by 2003," "a cancer cure, especially for breast cancer by 2007," 60% of cancer cured by 2008, a cloning of body parts "in the not too distant future ... in diagnostic chambers," and people with cerebral palsy, muscular dystrophy, MS, and spinal cord injuries will be walking "within the decade." Yeah ...]

(Too Vague) (1) There will be no big earthquake in California this year.

(Too Vague) (2) There will be no major tsunami for "quite awhile."

✗ (3) Hurricanes devastating Florida later this year.

✗ (4) Earthquakes in China, Mexico, India, Turkey, and Japan - sizable ones.

✗ (5) Major storm hitting the Gulf later this year (Sept./Oct.) but not Katrina-level.

(No way of Confirming) (6) No attempt to kidnap the Obama children.

(No way of Confirming) (7) There will be several assassination attempts on Obama. Three will be foiled in May, June, and November this year.

✗ (surprisingly) (8) A few sex scandals in the Senate again in the news this year.

✗ (9) Very sophisticated cyber attacks against computer systems and information networks, including the Pentagon and the CIA. They will be from Russia, China, and Korea. They will be successful - as in they will get information and very important secret information. Banking systems will also be targeted - millions will be stolen. The cost "will be astronomical." Some energy grids will be shut down.

(Too Vague, but Enough to give ...) ✓ (10) There will be a slow (very gradual) but consistent recovery in for the economy. There will be more job opportunities coming later in the year.

✗ (11) Commercial real estate will suffer this year, severely damaging the economy.

✗ (12) More effective medication for Alzheimer's.

- ✗ (13) "AIDS prevention advancement."
- ✗ (14) Breast and colon cancer treatments - for example, shiitake mushrooms will be under study for breast cancer prevention.
- ✗ (15) Heart disease devices will be created to help in that "battle," similarly with respiratory diseases.
- (Not a Prediction) (16) The recommendation for women not to get mammograms until after they're 50 was to save money - "don't listen to that ... it's wrong information," get them every few years "after you turn 40 I feel ... even late 30s."
- ✗ (17) There will be a fairly serious terrorist attack in an airport or airplane, around May or by June - possibly as early as March. A couple of airport attacks by people from from this country or other countries, who have connections with Islam and Muslim nations will be the culprits. They will NOT be successful. Something in JFK or New York, Washington, Heathrow (London), and Munich (Germany).

 MARK LERNER (astrologer) ***

[Mark made very few predictions. Much of what he rambled about was meaningless astrology things like where planets and asteroids are, and then what people feel and retrodiction with the astrology. Much of it was also "fortune cookie"-style predictions like, "We need to take stock of where we are," or "People need to stay alert," ... I did not write these down because they are not predictions. What I did write down are some of the most specific things, which'll give you an idea ...]

- ✗ (1) Obama hasn't been able to do what he wants because of the Void Moon during his inauguration. (Considering he got health care passed and during the lame duck session got DADT repealed and the New START treaty ratified, I'd say this is a major miss.)

(Not for 2010) (2) Peace/diplomacy/building alliances should be the thing Obama will be known for after he steps out after 4 or 8 years [shouldn't he know how many terms?].

(Too Vague) (3) There won't be a catastrophe.

(Too Vague) (4) The world needs to create a new global financial cohesion and the last opportunity to do so will be this year. If we miss "that wave" around February 6/7, then our last opportunity will be November, particularly November 18.

(Too Vague) (5) Good news for Pisces people because Jupiter is going into that sign ("get a mega-dose of Jupiter") for the first time in 12 years - you have the opportunity to grow and expand.

 JEFFREY WANDS (psychic) ***

- ✗ or (Too Vague) (1) Feb/March will have horrible weather. Especially in parts of the midwest and East coast.
- ✓ (2) Some sort of ecological disaster, like with oil. There will be a nuclear power plant meltdown in April/May, but not a severe meltdown.
- ✗ (3) "We'll move ahead" on the economy, around 3.2%, especially in May/June. The economy will get back on its feet in 2010. (Based on tradingeconomics.com, the US growth rate was 2.60% while the worst quarter was during the summer (when he said it would be best) at 1.7%.)
- ✗ (4) Concerned about Obama's safety in late Spring, not an assassination, but having to do with vehicles or the way he travels.
- ✗ (5) We'll stop a 3-4-type person terrorist operation around the Mall of America (Bloomington, Minnesota). Towards Easter - March-April.
- ✗ (6) There will be a non-terrorist-related major explosion event in New York's subways, more of an electrical thing.
- ✗ (7) Bloomberg will have a scandal on a very deep level. Financial/business-related. (May claim as a hit because Bloomberg was just (12/20) fined $62k for the Yankees tickets at the World Series, but I wouldn't think this is a "very deep level.")
- ✗ (8) A "liver cancer vaccine" or something to "help the process" will be discovered this year.
- (Too Soon to Tell) (9) 2010 will be a much better year for the country and world compared with 2008 and 2009.
- ✗ (10) We may get to $68/bl on oil this year. Oil will play a big role. (oil's lowest was $70)
- ✗ (11) There will be some major changes in Iran, it will be on the brink of a civil war, starting in February and coming to a head in the summer.
- ✗ (12) A preemptive strike from Israel on Iran in February. Then it will "go down" and moderates will take control [I think he means in Iran].
- ✗ (13) Earthquake and other natural disasters in Turkey and that region in general in regards to "earth changes."
- ✗ (14) Another disease scare in June/July similar to Legioner's Disease (?) but a different strain. People will think "it's biological but it's actually just a virus." [Except that a virus is biological ...]

✘ (15) Another bad year for Hollywood in terms of celebrity deaths and scandals later in the year.

✘ (16) Health issues for former presidents (1st Bush, Clinton, etc.)
